Issue #1

“Why didn’t the girls attending the python meetup?”

“Comfort Zone”

django girls

- It was born in Berlin and started by two Polish girls: Ola Sitarska and Ola Senddecka in July 2014.

Until now...

Workshop

A free & one-day event

Schedule

Coaches

Our coaches - they all come from Taipei.py

Issue #2

“There is only one female in the organization.”

“Find the female coach assistants.”

Coach Assistant

- Official Django Girls
 - 3 attendees
 - 1 coach
- Django Girls Taipei
 - 4 attendees
 - 1 coach
 - 1 coach assistant

Issue #3

“There are over 150 girls apply to attend this event,
how to choose the attendees?”

“We created a website for selection.”

Selection Website

- Voting by 4 scores:
 - +1 (Strongly Accept),
+0 (Weakly Accept),
-0 (Weakly Reject),
-1 (Strongly Reject)
- My personal rules:
 - Motivation
 - If the workshop can really help her.
 - Have she ever tried to learn something to achieve her goal?

Issue #4

“The Django Girls tutorial is English.
(In our first workshop on September 2014.)”

“Write our own tutorial.”

Tutorial

- Translation is harder
- Not very suitable for our rundown
- Project example - Travel diary website

Presentation

- 1 for each group
- Demo the website

Issue #6

“Most of the girls didn’t come back to join our regular meetups.”

“Hold a meetup for new comer”

Python Web Meetup X Django Girls Taipei

- Once a month
- Beginner topic + exercise time
- Not female only to be continued...

“We want to inspire women to fall in love
with programming.”
